

France becomes the main import zone in Spain

France is the largest trading partner of Spain. The volume of trade between the two countries amounts to 66.7 billion euros (37.65 billion euros in Spanish exports and 29 billion euros in French exports) during the last year